DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. Claims 1,12 and 22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,907,189.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between claims 1-26 of the present application and claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,907,189 is that claims 1,12 and 22 of the present application call for a method for playing back the audio data, catalog control information and catalog information while claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,907,189. call for a play back apparatus for playing the audio data, catalog control information and catalog information from a medium. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the play back apparatus of claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,907,189. for performing the playing back method of claims 1-26 of the present application since the play back apparatus of claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,907,189. comprises the means correspond to the steps of claims 1, 12 and 22 of the present application.

2. Claims 1, 2,12 and 22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1,2 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455.

Art Unit: 2621

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between claims 1,2, 12, 22 of the present application and claims 1 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455 is that claims 1, 2 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455 is that the features recited in claims 1,2, 12 and 22 of the present application are the features selected from among features recited in claims 1,2 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455. Since claims 1,3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455. cover claims 1,2,12 and 22 of the present application , it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify claims 1,2 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455 by selecting features being recited in claims 1,2 and 3-5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,687,455 to produce claims 1,2,12 and 22 of the present application.

3. Claims 1, 12 and 22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,707,985.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference between claims 1, 12 and 22 of the present application and claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,707,985 is that claims 1, 12 and 22 of the present application call for a playing back method for playing back the audio data, catalog control information and catalog information while claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,707,985 call for a play back apparatus for playing the audio data, catalog control and catalog information from a medium. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No.

6,707,985 by using the apparatus of claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,707,985 for performing the method claims 1,12 and 22 of the present application since the play back apparatus of claims 4 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,707,985 comprises means correspond to the steps of claims 1-26 of the present application.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 4. Claims 3-11,13-16,18-21 and 23-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
